Why Panthers

The Panther (felis concolor) was adopted as the University of Pittsburgh's mascot at a meeting of student and alumni leaders in the early autumn of 1909. Until the 1967 football season Pitt dressed up a student in a panther suit and used him as the official mascot. In 1967, however, the Beaver County Pitt Club purchased a live, baby panther and presented it to the University as the official Pitt mascot. Through a contest conducted by the student newspaper, the Panther was officially named Bagheera I, after the Panther created by Rudyard Kipling in his famous Jungle Book.

This Is The University of Pittsburgh

The University of Pittsburgh has just completed a decade of academic achievement which has gained it a new national prominence among institutions of higher learning, and recently, the Board of Trustees reaffirmed the institution's goal of sustained growth toward excellence, pledging the university's resources to build on past gains.

Those gains, to some degree, are measurable. The full-time faculty has doubled, 94 percent have Ph.D. degrees, teaching loads have been reduced, new and improved teaching resources are in use, and salaries have doubled. Physical plant acquisitions and construction alone have exceeded one hundred million dollars. More than 90 percent of entering freshmen are from the upper two fifths of their graduating classes. Ten new centers have been established and a number of new departments.

The spirit of the university is urban and international. Distinguished visiting professors and lecturers provide a continuous stimulus for faculty and students alike. Programs and projects are designed to enrich the intellectual experience of both faculty and students.

Both in its undergraduate and its graduate programs, the university attempts to establish, for every student, the best foundation both for earning a living and for leading a worthwhile life.

In the coming decade, the university will get bigger, perhaps growing to twice its present enrollment. Organizational structures constantly will be exploded so that the university can adjust to the needs of larger numbers of students without creating a depersonalized atmosphere in which they will feel a lack of individuality.

The university's immediate and long range objective is to offer the highest quality of education possible in a cosmopolitan atmosphere of free inquiry. It has infused its programs and student body with an international perspective, in the belief that a broadly based, world-oriented institution will be of best service to its region.

The University of Pittsburgh was founded in 1787, eleven years after the signing of the Declaration of Independence. It began in a log house as the Pittsburgh Academy, and achieved university status in 1819.

The university is a private, state-related institution which receives support from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and income from endowment, gifts and private sources. It is non-denominational.

It is composed of 18 degree granting schools and divisions. These schools are: Liberal Arts, Education, Engineering, Law, Dentistry, Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, and General Studies, and the Graduate Schools of Public Health, Public and International Affairs, Business, Social Work, and the new Graduate School of Library and Information Sciences. The divisions are those of the Humanities, Social Sciences, and Natural Sciences.

In order to extend its educational services throughout its natural home region, the university in September 1963 opened three new regional campuses at Bradford, Greensburg, and Titusville. Together with the Johnstown campus, which was opened in 1927, the new campuses are partial cross-sections of the university as a whole. Each provides the first four terms of undergraduate liberal arts and engineering study; post-baccalaureate work at the Master's level both in professional fields and the disciplines and adult education programs.

Located in Pittsburgh's civic and cultural center, the university's main campus comprises some 40 buildings on a 120 acre site just two miles from the city's business center. The campus is adjacent to 500 acres of rolling civic park and nearby are concert halls, museums and theaters, research institutions, book stores, art galleries, clubs and restaurants, churches, playgrounds and an arboretum; other colleges and hospitals.

A one hundred and twenty million dollar building program is projected for the next six years.

1969 Outlook:

No Predictions But a Promise

"I won't be making any predictions," Carl DePasqua warned his first press conference gathering, "but I will promise you this. Pitt will know how to block and tackle. We're going to return to Western Pennsylvania style football—tough, hard-nosed fundamental football."

On these counts alone, 1969 promises quite a change for Pitt's suffering football fans. The past three years have brought the Panthers a 3-27 record and humiliations the likes of 63-7, 50-17, 48-0, 56-7, 65-9, 58-0, 42-6, etc., etc., etc. What made it even worse was that last year was billed as "the year the Panther begins to growl." It didn't even purr.

New Athletic Director Casimir Myslinski hired DePasqua in January after a couple of prospective coaches turned down the Pitt job in a brilliant glare of publicity. It was a choice that has since been applauded by fans, players and press alike. DePasqua made few predictions when named, and even fewer during spring practice. But one thing became apparent, Pitt would once again be a fundamentally, sound football team.

"In view of what happened in the past, I am determined to take a realistic approach to our season," De Pasqua says. "It's impossible for me to say how our boys will react to game pressures. I've only seen them against each other, so I really can't properly evaluate our strengths and weaknesses."

After gathering a solid blend of experience and youth on his staff, DePasqua set two goals for spring practice. He wanted, first, to establish the basic fundamentals of blocking and tackling, and second to develop the toughness necessary to compete on Pitt's rugged schedule.

"I feel we progressed in all phases of the game," DePasqua noted after spring practice. "We were able to establish a competitive attitude for positions, and the morale and enthusiasm was very good. Their willingness to accept the challenge and pay the price was also extremely evident."

Although the past three years brought few football wins to Pitt, it did bring a number of recruiting victories, so Pitt will field one of its biggest and strongest teams in years. It will also be a veteran squad. A total of 37 lettermen return, including 18 of 22 regulars from last season—10 on defense and 8 on offense. Any thoughts of optimism from this must be tempered, however, by the knowledge that these are veterans from a 1-9 team.

In any case, Pitt's strength next season would appear to lie with the defense. With 10 starters back and a number of promising sophomores joining them, it is doubtful that the Panthers will allow the record number of 393 points scored against them last year, and the 4.1 yards per carry.

Anchoring that defense from the middle linebacker spot will be Ralph Cindrich, a 220-pound sophomore with all the credentials to be one of Pitt's top football players in recent years. Eastern heavyweight wrestling champion and fourth in the NCAAs this past year, Cindrich is a strong hitter who appears to possess that extra sixth sense to sniff out the ball. An injury red-shirt last season, Cindrich was preseason picked by Sports Illustrated as one of the top five sophomores in the country. In his first game, he lived up to his billing by making 17 tackles against UCLA, high for both teams. Late in the game, however, he injured his ankle, and was out for the rest of the season.

Flanking Cindrich on both sides will be a veteran linebacking corps that could be the strength of the team. Expected to start at the outside spots are senior Geoff Brown (6-3, 217) and junior Dave McGrath (6-2, 227). Battling for their jobs are sophomore Joe Carroll (6-1, 215), juniors Ken Shumaker (6-0, 203), John Wozniak (5-10, 216) and Ed Sinesky (6-2, 211), and senior Eugene Yajko (5-10, 205).

The front four is both big and experienced. Expected to start are junior John Stevens (6-2, 242) and sophomore redshirt Howard Broadhead (6-4, 248) at tackle, and seniors Paul Naponick (6-4, 246) and Bob Ellis (6-2, 215) at end. Backing them up at tackle are juniors Bruce Harkiewicz (6-2, 227) and Tom Porreca (6-3, 230), and at end junior Lloyd Weston (6-1, 234), senior Fred Tolhurst (6-5, 226) and sophomore Hank Alford (6-6, 240).

DePasqua will have an experienced secondary returning, but one that proved susceptible to the pass last year. Opponents completed over 58 per cent of their passes last season and DePasqua is hoping to cut down drastically on this figure. Heading the defensive corps is junior Charles Hall, a 6-1, 200-pounder who midway through the season last year turned into one of the finest defensive backs in the East. Veterans returning with Hall are two-year starters Jeff Barr (6-1, 188), George Pribish (5-11, 184) and Dave Dibbley (5-11, 193) and letter winners Bryant Salter (Jr., 6-4, 193) and Mike Bannan (Jr., 6-0, 195).

Offensively, Pitt has relied almost exclusively on the passing game the past couple of years, but DePasqua plans to change that. The new Pitt coach feels a team must first establish a solid ground game before the passing attack will be effective, and this will be the tone of the Panther multiple Wing-T offense next fall. To get this job done Pitt will have a veteran backfield returning, but an inexperienced and unproven line could cause DePasqua plenty of headaches.

Junior starter Dave Havern, the 5-9, 167-pound record setting quarterback returns but the mini-field general found himself in a battle this spring for his job with senior transfer Jim Friedl (5-9, 185). Havern set three school passing records last season and ranked 15th in passing in the NCAA, but neither he nor Friedl appeared to have the job sewn up after spring practice.

In the backfield, Pitt will have experience, size and speed. The top six rushers return from last year, but only one of those was over 150 yards for the season. Junior tailback Dennis Ferris gained 472 yards on the ground last season and he's expected to win the tailback job although he'll get some stiff competition from Gary Cramer (Sr., 5-10, 190), John Moss (So., 6-4, 220), Dave Garnett (Jr., 6-2, 208) and John Sikina (Jr., 6-1, 209). At the fullback spot, junior regular Tony Esposito (6-1, 226) returns along with sophomore Lou Julian (5-11, 222) and junior Phil Sgrignoli (5-11, 214). Two-year regular Joe McCain (6-0, 190) returns at wingback, but he'll also be challenged by junior J. D. Lewis (6-2, 190) and sophomore George Boyerinas (6-1, 195). (McCain broke his leg playing softball this summer and it was not known at press time whether he'll play this Fall.)

On the offensive line, a number of vets return but DePasqua may be forced to use several sophomores if he hopes to make his running game go. In any case, this appears to be the real question mark on the team. The ends appear to be in good hands with two-year regular George Medich (6-5, 225) likely ticketed for tight end and junior Bill Pilconis (6-6, 207) the split end. Along the line senior Dave Magyar (6-1, 216) and sophomore Bob Kuziel (6-4, 227) are fighting for the center spot; at the guards are John Simpson (So., 6-1, 230), Ed Sadowski (6-0, 224), Warren Allen (Sr., 6-1, 198), Dan Lynn (So., 6-1, 211) and Dave Mancuso (Sr., 6-4, 212); and the tackles show Bill Beinecke (6-3, 242), Rodney Fedorchak (Sr., 6-6, 240), Rick Lozier (So., 6-1, 227), Dennis Persin (Jr., 6-1, 225) and George Richards (Sr., 6-1, 227).

Overall, the picture can be summed up this way. There is experience and potential, but Pitt fans and opponents heard that same story last year. The only thing that counts is what shows on the scoreboard this fall. "Confidence is a plant of slow growth," DePasqua warns, "and I'm not going to say anything about our team until we prove we deserve it."

Prospectus Rundown

Lettermen:
Returning 37, of these 10 were defensive starters and eight were offensive starters.

Probable Strong Spots:
Defensive line, linebackers, defensive secondary, and expected progressive improvement.

Current Major Weaknesses:
Lack of experience on offensive line, question mark on starting quarterback, lack of true picture from spring practice because of injuries and players participating in other spring sports.

Top Backs:

Top Linemen:

Top Sophomores:

All Honor Candidates:

Spring Game

In an evenly matched game, the Golds (first-team offense and second-team defense) defeated the Blues, 16-15. Following the game, Coach Carl DePasqua said that he was well pleased with the performance, particularly the passing game. He did express some concern over the running game, however. A crowd of some 5,000 fans watched the wide-open game which was complete with screens, draws, halfback option passes and end-arounds. The Gold scores came on a 57-yard screen pass from quarterback Jim Friedl to tailback Dennis Ferris; a 73-yard pass from Friedl to wingback J. D. Lewis, and a safety. The Blue points resulted from a 60-yard return of an intercepted pass by Mike Bannan and a 25-yard pass from quarterback Joe DeLisio to end Lloyd Rodgers.

DR. WESLEY W. POSVAR
Chancellor

Dr. Wesley W. Posvar, former Rhodes Scholar and Chairman of the Social Sciences Division at the Air Force Academy, became Pitt's 15th chancellor on June 1st, 1967.

Dr. Posvar, whose scholarly achievements have gained national attention, holds five academic degrees. He graduated first in his class from West Point in 1946, achieving one of the highest grades in the Academy's history. He subsequently was a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford University from 1948-51, receiving both his B.A. and M.A. in Philosophy, Politics and Economics. He also earned the Master of Public Administration and the Ph.D. in political science from Harvard in 1964.

Dr. Posvar was the first Air Force officer to win a Rhodes Scholarship, and the youngest full professor at the Air Force Academy when he was appointed to head the political science department there in 1957. In 1959 he was named one of the Ten Outstanding Young Men in the U.S. by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. He was a Littauer Fellow in the Graduate School of Public Administration at Harvard from 1962-64, and a Research Fellow at M.I.T.'s Center for International Studies from 1963-64.

An avid sports fan, Dr. Posvar has pleged a strong, winning athletic program at Pitt. A frequent visitor to Pitt's football practice sessions, Dr. Posvar has attended all of Pitt's home and away games, including one that he made by cutting short a trip in Europe. A former trackman, himself, he also has seen a number of the Panther track meets.

CASIMIR J. MYSLINSKI
Athletic Director

"My entire aim is to bring the athletic program back to the heights it deserves. And I don't just mean football; I mean all sports. There's no doubt about it, Pitt athletics belong on top. We intend to be major league, and we intend to win."

With these winning aims, Casimir J. Myslinski accepted the job as Pitt's new Athletic Director on December 24, 1968. He was named to succeed Frank Carver who was nominated Secretary of the Board of Trustees of the University.

A former All-American football player at Army under coach Earl (Red) Blaik, Myslinski has a long and distinguished career in athletics as a player, coach and administrator. Following graduation from high school, he enrolled at the U.S. Military Academy where the famous Earl Blaik was turning out some of the best college football teams in the nation.

Myslinski captained the 1943 Army team and was named to every first team All-American squad at center. He graduated from Army in 1944 with a B.S. in engineering and subsequently earned a Masters in Education from Teachers' College, Columbia University.

Following graduation from West Point, he entered the Air Force and held a wide variety of military positions. In 1952 he returned to West Point as Deputy Head of the Department of Physical Education, and moved from there in 1956 to Head of the Department of Physical Education at the United States Air Force Academy in Colorado.

He retired from the Air Force as a Lt. Col. in August 1967, and worked in private industry in California for over a year before being named at Pitt.

Born on March 6, 1920, in Steubenville, Ohio, Myslinski and his wife, Eleanor, have four children—Linda, 19; Patricia, 18; Michael, 15, and Dorothy, 13.

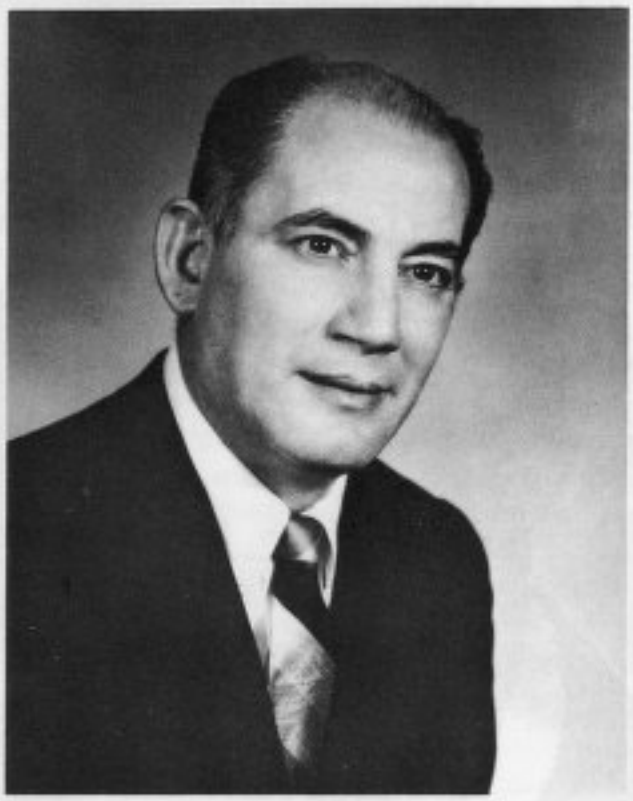
CARL A. DePASQUA

Head Football Coach



It was the morning that Arizona's Frank Kush stunned the football world by announcing that he was backing out of his contract after only four days as the Pitt coach. There in the lobby of the Biltmore Hotel in Los Angeles where the football coaches were holding their annual convention, an angry alumnus approached Frank Carver.

"What's wrong with Carl DePasqua?" the alumnus asked the former Pitt athletic director. It was a question hundreds of Pitt alumni had been asking ever since Dave Hart resigned in November. This particular alumnus had a more personal interest in the question, however. His name was Carl DePasqua.

Many couldn't understand why Pitt was looking elsewhere for a football coach when a Pitt man had all the qualifications. New Athletic Director Casimir Myslinski agreed that DePasqua was a natural, and offered him the job. It was a choice that since has been praised by players, fans and press alike.

Pitt's 26th head coach has been a prominent name in the Tri-State coaching circles since he joined the Pitt staff as a defensive backfield coach in 1958. A man well familiar with the area and the University, he is regarded as an astute observer of the game and a sound, fundamental coach.

DePasqua is the seventh former Panther player to return to his alma mater as the head coach. An outstanding Pitt back from 1946-49, he played under Wes Fesler (1946) and Mike Milligan. Coming to Pitt from Williamsport High School where he captained both the football and basketball teams to brilliant records, DePasqua was a starting quarterback as a freshman, a halfback as a sophomore, and then a fullback on two winning teams as a junior and a senior. All this while weighing only 160 pounds.

Following graduation from Pitt in 1950, DePasqua spent two years in the Army and then returned to Pitt to earn a Master's degree and coach part time. He coached in Canada in 1955, went into pizza business in Pittsburgh for two years, and then joined John Michelosen's Pitt staff in 1958.

After eight years as a defensive specialist on the Pitt staff, DePasqua was named head coach at Waynesburg (Pa.) College in 1966, where he produced two of the finest small college teams in the nation. In two years his teams lost just once (17-1) while winning the NAIA championship his first year and losing 7-0 to the eventual national champion his second season. His clubs at Waynesburg broke nearly all the school records on the books.

From Waynesburg, DePasqua gained valuable experience on the professional level by joining the Pittsburgh Steeler staff in 1968 as the defensive line coach.

A resident of Pittsburgh, he and his wife Catherine, have two children—Dana, 12, and John, 4. DePasqua was born October 28, 1927.

LOU 'BIMBO' CECCONI
Offensive Coordinator

The first man named to Carl DePasqua's staff, Lou 'Bimbo' Cecconi is a former great Pitt player and a Panther coach for eight years. He played in the same Panther backfield as head coach Carl DePasqua from 1946-49. He is 40.

A 1946 graduate of Donora High (Pa.), Cecconi was one of the top all-around athletes in the school's history. He won 11 letters in football, basketball, baseball and track, and was named all-WPIAL in both football and basketball. As a quarterback he led his team to an undefeated season and the WPIAL championship, and in basketball to the State finals.

From Donora he moved to Pitt where he starred, winning eight letters in football and basketball. A four-year regular in football as a quarterback and halfback, he captained the Panthers his senior year. He was named an All-East halfback his senior year, and played in the North-South game. In addition, he won the Dapper Dan Outstanding Player Award in 1948 and 1949.

A 1950 Pitt graduate, he began his coaching career immediately following graduation as an assistant coach at Donora High. Following two years in the Army, he was named head football, basketball and baseball coach at Sharpsburg High where his grid team compiled a 27-10-10 mark in five years.

In 1958 he was named an assistant coach at Pitt and he served John Michelosen's staff as freshman coach, backfield coach and offensive coach from 1958-65. For the past three years he served as offensive coach at Indiana State of Terre Haute (Ind.) where his offense averaged over 30 points per game last year.

Married, he and his wife, Vilma, have five children—Louis, 17; Anne, 15; Paula, 14; Mary, 12; and Virginia, 11.

SERAFINO 'FOGE' FAZIO
Defensive Line

A former outstanding Pitt player, Serafino 'Foge' Fazio adds a fine blend of youth and experience to the Panther coaching staff. He is 30.

A native of nearby Coraopolis, Fazio was an all-WPIAL center and linebacker at Coraopolis High School. Moving to Pitt, he was the Panther's starting center in 1958 and 1959, winning the MVP Award his senior year in addition to being named to the All-East squad and honorable mention All-American. He also was chosen to play in the North-South Game and the All-American Bowl.

A fifth-round draft choice of the Boston Patriots, he decided on coaching instead of playing and started his career as an assistant coach at Coraopolis High in 1962. He left Coraopolis for two years to take the job as defensive coordinator at Ambridge High School (Pa.), but returned in 1965 as head coach. In two years at his alma mater his teams compiled a 13-4-1 record while winning the Ohio Valley Conference championship.

In 1967 Fazio moved to the college coaching ranks as offensive line coach and head freshman coach at Boston University. His Boston frosh were 5-1.

Last season Fazio was the defensive line coach at Harvard, a team that tied for the Ivy League Championship with an 8-0-1 mark. Defensively, the team ranked third in the nation against scoring, and 13th in the country in total defense.

Married, he and his wife, Norma, have one girl—Kristen, 1.

TOM FLETCHER

Defensive Coordinator

Long associated with winning football on the collegiate level, Tom Fletcher brings to the Panther defense an outstanding reputation and background. He is 43.

A top back at Arizona State, he was named an All-Conference defensive back before graduating in 1954. Drafted in the 11th round by the San Francisco 49ers, an ankle injury ended his pro playing career during his first year.

He started his coaching career as defensive backfield coach at Arizona State, and during his four years on the staff, Arizona State compiled a 33-7-1 record. When Dan Devine was named head coach at Missouri in 1958, he asked Fletcher to join him as backfield coach. In eight years at Missouri, Fletcher coached both the offensive and defensvie backfields as the Tigers compiled a 58-20-6 mark and seven times ranked in the Top 20 en route to four major bowl appearances.

In 1966 Fletcher joined Bill Austin's staff of the Pittsburgh Steelers as defensive backfield coach where he spent the past three years.

Married, he and his wife, Fran, have two girls—Susan, 8; and Sandra, 7.

PAUL KEMP

Linebackers

A native of Waterloo, Iowa, Paul Kemp was appointed linebacker coach at Pitt after a highly successful coaching career in the West on both the collegiate and professional level. He is 37.

As a player, Kemp lettered three years as a quarterback at the University of Iowa. Following graduation from Iowa in 1954, he was named head coach at North Dakota State Teachers College in Dickinson, N.D. In one year there, his team compiled a 6-2 record.

In 1957 Kemp was named an assistant coach at Ball State, and in 1958 he moved to the staff at Arizona State as offensive coach. In his nine years there, Arizona State won over 80 per cent of their games.

In 1967 he moved to Iowa State as offensive coach, and last season he gained valuable experience on the pro level as a talent scout for the Atlanta Falcons.

Although he has never coached in the East prior to coming to Pitt, Kemp is no stranger when it comes to football players from Pennsylvania. In his nine years at Arizona State he recruited numerous players from the talent-rich Pennsylvania area.

Married, he and his wife, Beth, have three children—Michelle, 14; Melinda, 12; and Melissa, 6.

STEVE PETRO

Defensive Tackles

A familiar face on the football scene at Pitt for the last 16 years, Steve Petro is the experienced veteran on the Panther staff.

Coming to Pitt from Johnstown High School (Pa.), Petro played three years as a guard from 1936 through 1938. His first starting assignment was in the 1937 Rose Bowl when Pitt dumped Washington, 21-0. In his three years at Pitt, the Panthers compiled a 23-3-2 record against the best competition in the country.

Following graduation from Pitt he played two years of professional football for Brooklyn, while working for Bethlehem Steel Corporation. He entered the service in 1942, serving first with the Air Force and then in Intelligence. During his years in the Service, he also took time out to play football.

Upon his return to civilian life, Petro went back to the Steel Industry, serving as line coach in the Pennsylvania Professional League from 1947-48 during his evening hours. A volunteer helper during Pitt's 1950 Spring drills, he was named junior varsity coach in the Fall. In 1951 he moved to the varsity as assistant line coach, and from 1954-57 he was Pitt's freshmen coach. He was moved back to the varsity staff in 1958.

Married to the former Winifred Wilson, the couple has five children—Linda, 21; Mary Beth, 18; Lorraine, 14; Pamela, 10, and Steve, Jr., 9. The Petros live in Baldwin Borough.

BILL QUINTER

Freshman Coach

Blending youth with a solid football background, Bill Quinter will coach the Pitt Cubs for Carl DePasqua. He is 30.

A native of Wheaton, Md., Quinter was a three-year letterman at the University of Indiana as an offensive and defensive end. Following graduation from the Big Ten school in 1962, he played five years of professional football in the Canadian League with the Ottawa Roughriders. In 1967 he was on the taxi squad of the Atlanta Falcons.

Last season, Quinter began his coaching career as offensive line coach at Indiana State of Terre Haute. There, he served with Lou "Bimbo" Cecconi, now at Pitt as offensive coordinator, and together their offense averaged over 30 points per game.

This past spring he served as Pitt's offensive line coach.

Married, he and his wife, Sally, have two boys—Bill, Jr., 5; and Jason, 1½.

Pitt Stadium—Home of the Panthers

Pitt Stadium, with a seating capacity of 57,331, is generally considered one of the finest football stadiums, spectator-wise, in the East. Every seat in the oval shaped stadium is a good one for viewing football.

Opened in 1925 at a cost of $2,125,000, the stadium originally seated 67,000. Various seats were later taken out to provide better access to all of the seats. The stadium plant itself encompasses 10 acres with an outer circumference of one-half mile. Besides the football field, facilities include intramural basketball courts, a 440-yard track and dressing rooms.

The first game was played in 1925 when Washington & Lee defeated Pitt, 28-0. During the next four seasons, the Panthers played 30 of their 34 games in the Stadium. The single-game attendance record was set in 1938 when 68,918 fans jammed every corner of the Stadium to see Pitt top Fordham, 24-13. The one-season attendance record was set in 1956 when 239,718 people watched the Panthers in five games. The average game attendance of 47,944 is also a Stadium record.

Panthers Have Varied Interests

Pitt has always been extremely proud of the records its athletes have attained following graduation. Pitt players on the 1969 squad are planning an interesting variety of careers as evidenced by the wide range of curricula majors. And, many of them are excellent students, too.

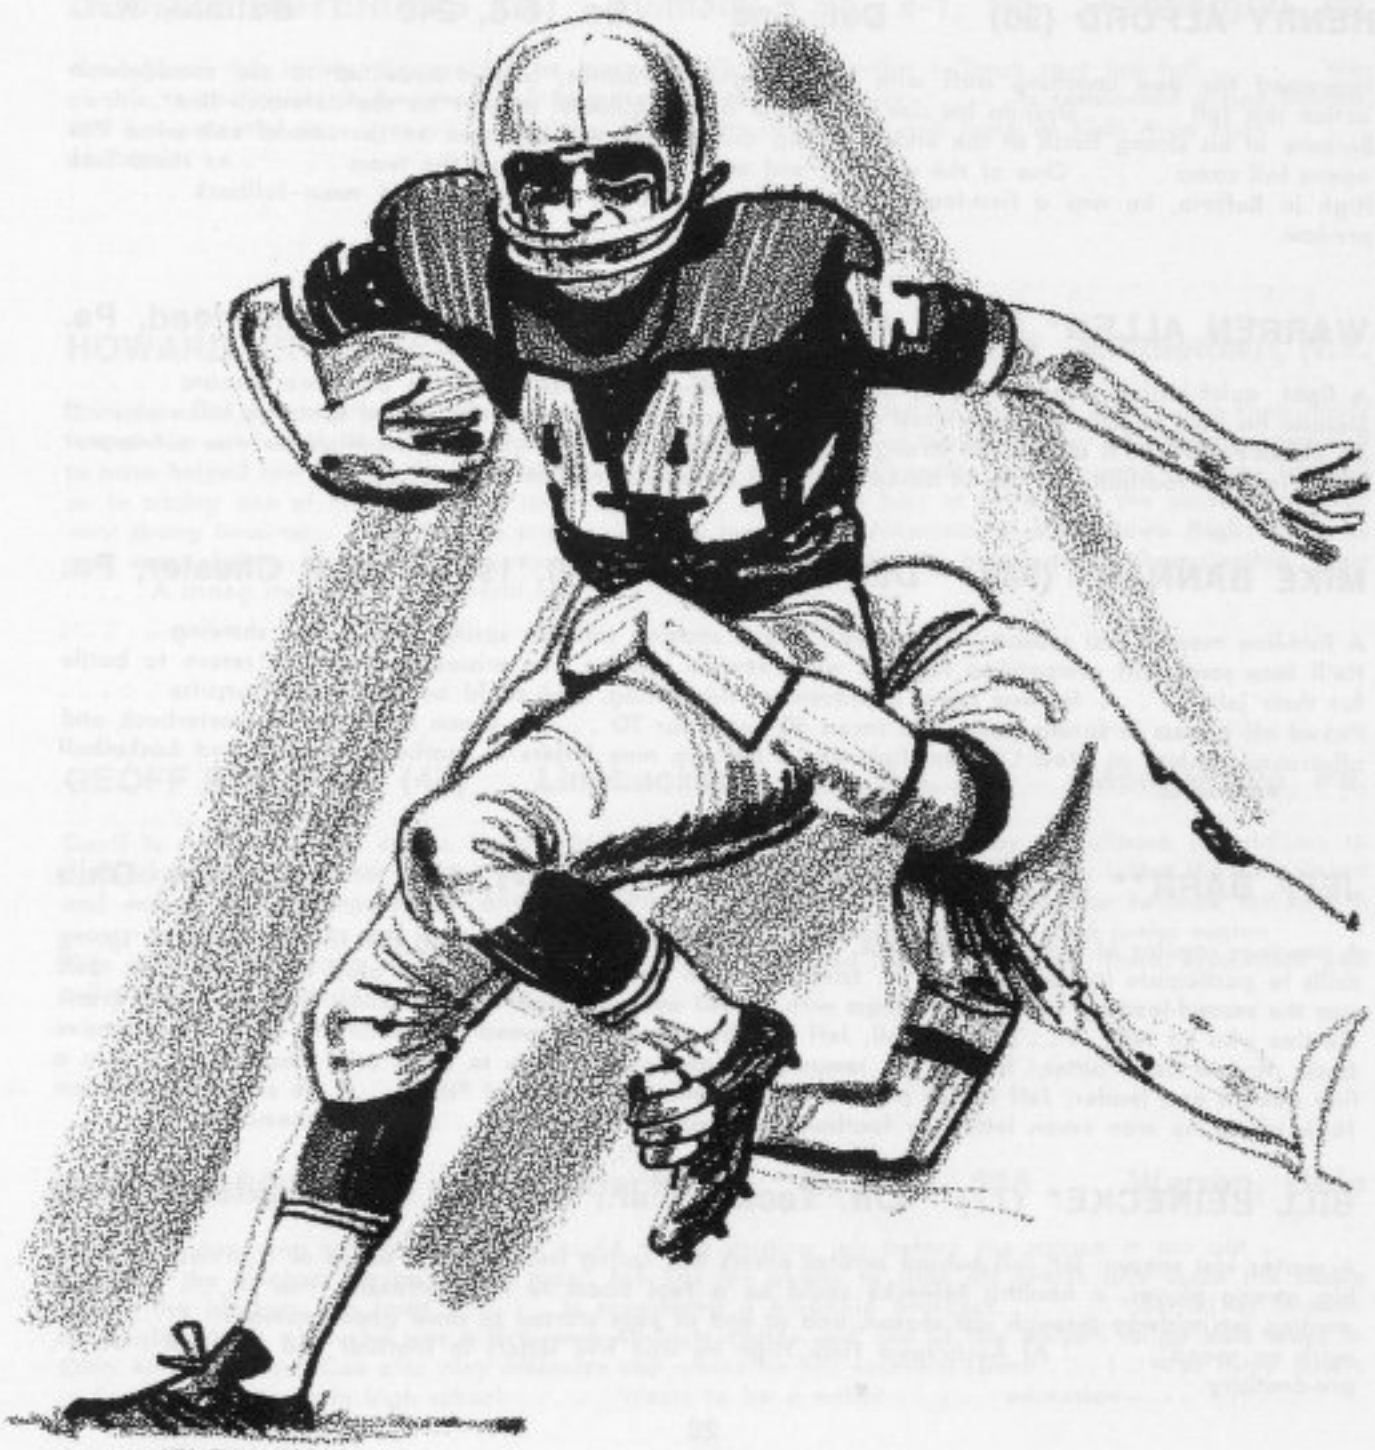
Meet The 1969 Panthers



Mike Bannan

Jeff Barr

Bill Beinecke

HENRY ALFORD (90) Def. End So., 6-6, 240 Buffalo, N.Y.

Impressed the new coaching staff with his spring performance, and is expected to see considerable action this fall . . . . . Despite his size, he is one of the quickest players on the defensive line . . . . . Because of his strong finish at the end of spring drills, Hank will be listed on the second unit when Pitt opens fall camp . . . . . One of the sharpest and most 'mod' dressers on the team . . . . . At Hutch-Tech High in Buffalo, he was a first-team all-conference defensive end and second team fullback . . . . . pre-law.

WARREN ALLEN* (62) Off. Guard Sr., 6-1, 198 Homestead, Pa.

A light, quick-hitting guard, Warren has been an off-and-on starter for the past two seasons . . . . . Despite his lack of size, his experience gives him a good shot at a starting guard spot this fall . . . . . If he doesn't start, he'll afford Pitt strong backup support . . . . . At Homestead High he was a two-year letterwinner in football and one in basketball . . . . . electrical engineering.

MIKE BANNAN* (18) Def. Back Jr., 6-0, 195 West Chester, Pa.

A first-line reserve last season, Mike moved into a starting job this spring with a fine showing . . . . . He'll face some stiff competition this fall when several players who missed spring drills return to battle for their jobs . . . . . Showed great improvement this spring, and could be a pleasant surprise . . . . . Picked off a pass in spring game and raced 60 yards for TD . . . . . Came to Pitt as a quarterback and all-around athlete at West Chester High where he won nine letters in football, baseball and basketball . . . . . economics.

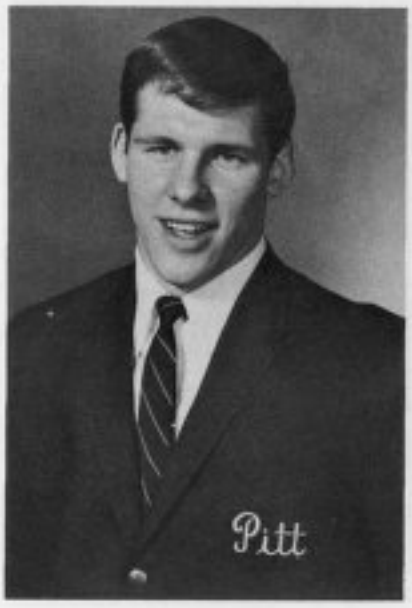
JEFF BARR (11) Def. Back Sr., 6-1, 188 Canton, Ohio

A two-year regular at defensive halfback, Jeff must win back his starting job this fall after missing spring drills to participate in baseball . . . . . Baseball coach Bob Lewis was mighty glad he did, though. Jeff was the second-leading hitter on the team with a .343 average, right behind fellow football player Frank Gustine who hit .462 . . . . . In football, Jeff has the experience, speed and ability to be a top defensive back. Known as a 'hitter,' he has the temperment and all the tools to be a solid back . . . . . Also a fine student and leader, Jeff is vice president of student government at Pitt . . . . . He starred at Lehman High where he won seven letters in football, baseball and basketball . . . . . mathematics.

BILL BEINECKE* (77) Off. Tackle Jr., 6-3, 242 Youngstown, Ohio

A starter last season, Bill fell behind several others this spring because of a series of injuries . . . . . A big, strong player, a healthy Beinecke could be a real boom to Pitt's offensive line . . . . . Won a starting job midway through last season, and at end of year started to show good promise . . . . . Needs work on speed . . . . . At Austintown Fitch High he won five letters in football and baseball . . . . . pre-dentistry.

Howard Broadhead



Geoff Brown

Joe Carroll

GEORGE BOYERINAS (38) Fullback So., 6-1, 195 Vandergrift, Pa.

A wingback this spring, George will be moved to his more familiar fullback spot this fall . . . . . Was unable to participate in freshman ball because of a shoulder injury . . . . . Is considered a fine blocker, and has potential as a runner . . . . . Won five letters in football and track at Kiski Area High . . . . . education.

HOWARD BROADHEAD (74) Def. Tackle So., 6-4, 248 Middletown, N.Y.

Considered a top prospect at defensive tackle . . . . . Was scheduled to start last year but a knee injury forced him out for the season. He was given an injury red-shirt, and the extra year of maturity appeared to have helped him immensely this spring . . . . . Had an excellent spring practice, and is being counted on to anchor one of Pitt's defensive tackle posts . . . . . Is Pitt's best at pressuring the passer, and also very strong head-on . . . . . Was a prep honorable mention All-American at Middletown High where he won seven letters in football and wrestling; won sectional wrestling heavyweight championship twice . . . . . A strong student . . . . . liberal arts

GEOFF BROWN (47) Linebacker Sr., 6-3, 217 Monroeville, Pa.

Geoff is considered one of the finest athletes on the team and could play at fullback in addition to linebacker . . . . . Coaches feel he has potential to be outstanding linebacker . . . . . Has the size, speed and experience to compete with anyone on Pitt's schedule . . . . . Was a regular fullback for half a season as a sophomore, and then regular linebacker for rest of sophomore year and junior season . . . . . Was an all-WPIAL choice at Plum Boro High where he won nine letters in football, track, basketball and volleyball . . . . . biology.

JOE CARROLL (49) Linebacker So., 6-1, 215 Warren, Ohio

Had an outstanding spring game, and could win a starting job before the season is too old . . . . . Probably the quickest player on the team, Joe has the ability to slide off blocks and make the tackle before the blockers can react . . . . . Is considered a blue-chip prospect . . . . . Starred at Warren G. Harding High where he was a first-team All-State choice and one of few players to go both ways in Ohio All-Star game. Can also play offensive end where he has excellent speed . . . . . Won three letters in football and track in high school . . . . . Wants to be a writer . . . . . education

Ralph Cindrich

Gary Cramer

Dave Dibbley

RALPH CINDRICH (50) Linebacker So., 6-1, 220 Avella, Pa.

Pitt's top prospect for "All" honors, Cindrich is considered one of the finest sophomore players in a long time for the Panthers . . . . . Coaches say he rates, at same stage, with former Pitt great Joe Schmidt, now coach of the Detroit Lions . . . . . Does everything well from linebacker spot. Has that extra 'sixth sense,' is a brutal tackler and an excellent leader . . . . . Picked last season by Sports Illustrated as one of the Top Five Sophomores in the country, he lived up to that billing in first game by making 17 tackles against UCLA, high for both teams. Late in the game, however, he injured his ankle and was lost for the season . . . . . He received an injury red-shirt, and had what the coaches called a 'super spring practice' Also an outstanding wrestler, Ralph won the Eastern Heavyweight championship this past year as a sophomore, and was fourth in the NCAAs . . . . . At Avella High he won seven letters in football and wrestling while winning 'All' honors in just about everything . . . . . Played in Pennsylvania's famous Big 33 Game, and his performance is considered one of the finest in the game's history . . . . . An excellent leader, he was president of his class at Avella . . . . . Is an antique gun collector, and loves to hunt and fish . . . . . liberal arts.

GARY CRAMER (26) Tailback Sr., 5-10, 190 Belle Vernon, Pa.

A two-year starter, Gary possibly has been Pitt's steadiest and one of its best performers over that period . . . . . A complete ballplayer, he is an excellent blocker, has good strength and has that quality known as 'football sense' . . . . . Extremely durable, he has only missed one game in two years due to injuries . . . . . Married this past summer to his high school sweetheart, who is also a Pitt coed . . . . Had his best game against Navy as a sophomore when he gained 139 yards in 13 carries, including a 53-yard TD romp. It was the best performance for a Pitt back in the past three years and marked the longest run from the line of scrimmage . . . . . At Belle Vernon High he won ten letters in football, basketball and baseball . . . . . education.

Year	Att.	Yds.	Net Yds.	Avg.	TDs
1967	78	325	312	4.0	1
1968	23	40	24	1.0	0

DAVE DIBBLEY (36) Def. Back Sr., 5-11, 193 New Castle, Pa.

A two-year regular, Dave adds good experience and depth to the defensive backfield . . . . . Is a sure tackler, and excells at coming up to stop the outside game . . . . . Was outstanding as a sophomore, but tailed off somewhat last season . . . . . Named honorable mention All-East as a sophomore . . . . . At Shenango Area High he won nine letters in football, basketball and track . . . . . Married . . . . . One of his hobbies is flying . . . . . A B plus student . . . . . petroleum engineering

Bill Donovan

Bob Ellis

Tony Esposito

BILL DONOVAN (83) Tight End So., 6-1, 230 Pittsburgh, Pa.

A pleasant surprise during spring drills, Bill won a starting job until an ankle injury cost him his spot . . . . . Listed as the number two tight end, and should see considerable action this season . . . . . Has excellent size, and good speed . . . . . Played fullback, tackle and linebacker in high school . . . . . Co-captained Pa. Big 33 team and played defensive tackle . . . . . At Baldwin High where he won All-State honors, he earned six letters in football, baseball and track . . . . . education.

JACK DYKES (63) Off. Tackle So., 6-1, 236 Apollo, Pa.

One of the finest football players in Pennsylvania prep football two years ago, Jack is being counted on to help at either the offensive tackle spot or defensive end . . . . . Did not have a good spring practice session, but has the potential to crack the starting lineup with a good fall practice . . . . . Played offensively this spring but was an outstanding defensive player in high school, and may be switched to defense this fall . . . . . Is very strong and loves to hit . . . . . At Kiski Area High he won All-State, All-WPIAL (MVP lineman), and Big 33 honors, while earning eight letters in football, track and wrestling . . . . . Co-captained Big 33 team and had outstanding game . . . . . Was an Eagle scout . . . . . education.

BOB ELLIS (86) Def. End Sr., 6-2, 215 Altoona, Pa.

A two-year starter at defensive end, and considered a solid football player . . . . . Has the experience, size and speed needed to play the end spot in Pitt's new defensive setup . . . . . Has been plagued by a series of injuries at Pitt, but usually is ready when Saturday's game comes . . . . . Had an excellent spring . . . . . At Altoona High he won four letters in football and basketball . . . . . English literature.

TONY ESPOSITO* (45) Fullback Jr., 6-1, 226 McKees Rocks, Pa.

Tony had several outstanding games last season, but Pitt coaches are still waiting for him to live up to his full potential . . . . . Big and strong, he has the speed of a halfback and is a top open-field runner once he gets past the line of scrimmage . . . . . Against Navy last year he rushed for 112 yards and showed great promise as a bruising type of runner . . . . . Is listed as the starting fullback, but will receive stiff competition from sophomore Lou Julian . . . . . Starred at Stowe High where he won nine letters in football, basketball and baseball, and at Greenbrier Military Academy where he was named All-League . . . . . liberal arts.

Rodney Fedorchak

Dennis Ferris

Jim Friedl

RODNEY FEDORCHAK (70) Off. Tackle Sr., 6-6, 240 Monongahela, Pa.

Coaches are hoping this could be the year that Rod reaches his potential . . . . . Has shown steady progress, but position switches have slowed his advancement . . . . . Was a tight end as a sophomore, but moved to offensive line last season . . . . . Could win the starting tackle job . . . . . His father, Nicholas, is a priest . . . . . At Monongahela High he won six letters in football and basketball . . . . . liberal arts.

DENNIS FERRIS* (22) Tailback Jr., 6-1, 197 Pittsburgh, Pa.

Pitt's top back last year, Dennis could be one of the East's top runners this year . . . . . Has great speed, and is extremely strong for his size . . . . . Gained 472 yards rushing last year, while nearest back to that was Tony Esposito with 150 . . . . . Had three games when he rushed for over 100 yards—137 vs. William & Mary, 112 vs. Air Force and 112 vs. Army . . . . . An eye injury suffered two summers ago cost him partial vision of his eye, and he was forced to sit out a season with an injury redshirt. For a while it was feared he would never play football again, but he came back strong last season . . . . . At North Catholic High where he made All-Catholic honors he won two letters in football . . . . . economics.

JIM FRIEDL (12) Quarterback Sr., 5-9, 185 Coraopolis, Pa.

A pleasant surprise during spring drills, he could win the starting quarterback job with a good fall practice . . . . . Ran one-two with returning regular Dave Havern during most of the spring . . . . . Coaches were impressed with his cool, composed performance during the spring game when he completed 19-25 for 229 yards and 2 TDs . . . . . Biggest handicap is lack of size . . . . . Was starting quarterback at The Citadel before transfering to Pitt and sitting out last season.

DAVE GARNETT* (33) Tailback Jr., 6-2, 208 Buffalo, N.Y.

A speedster who ran a 9.5 hundred in high school, Dave was hampered by leg injuries during his sophomore season . . . . . He has shown flashes of outstanding ability, but consistent leg injuries have kept him from reaching his potential . . . . . Missed spring practice to participate in track, so coaches don't know what he can do . . . . . Had his best game against Miami when he rushed for 51 yards in 11 carries . . . . . Ended up as third leading ground gainer with 134 yards . . . . . Father, Hebert, is a minister . . . . . At Buffalo East High he won three letters in football and track . . . . . Was the State champ in track in the 100 and 220 . . . . . liberal arts.

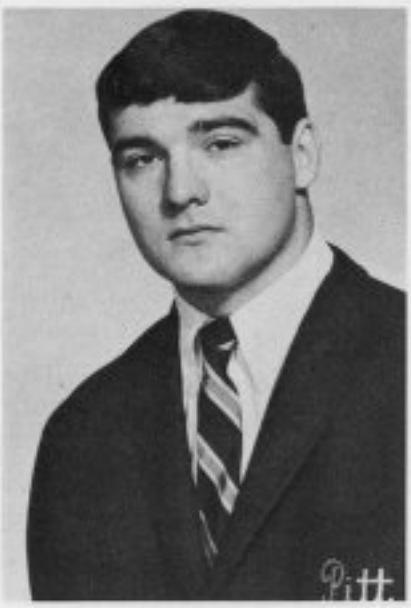
Frank Gustine

Charles Hall



Bruce Harkiewicz

FRANK GUSTINE (19) Quarterback Sr., 6-1, 193 Pittsburgh, Pa.

An extremely fine all-around athlete, Frank has lettered twice in football, twice in baseball and once in basketball already at Pitt . . . . . In football he started at quarterback as a sophomore, but saw limited duty last year as a defensive halfback . . . . . Has a strong throwing arm, and could be a surprise starter at quarterback . . . . . Skipped spring drills to participate in baseball where he led the Panthers in hitting with a .462 average as a first baseman. Was named to the All-District all-star team . . . . . His father, Frank Gustine, Sr., is a former All-Star infielder with the Pittsburgh Pirates . . . . . An all-around athlete in high school, also, Frank won eleven letters at Canevin High and three at Massanotten Military Academy where he prepped for one year . . . . . Married this past spring to his high school sweetheart . . . . . economics.

CHARLES HALL* (21) Def. Back Jr., 6-1, 200 Bala-Cynwyd, Pa.

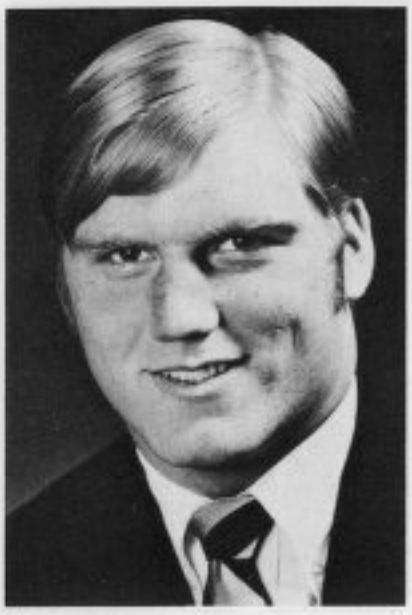
A definite All-East candidate in the defensive backfield . . . . . After a slow start last season, he came on with such a rush that by the season's end he ranked as one of the finest defensive backs at Pitt in recent years . . . . . Is excellent at coming up to make the tackle on the end sweeps and has the good speed (9.9 in the 100) to cover the receivers deep . . . . . Had his best game against Notre Dame when he was credited with seven individual tackles and eight assists, high for both teams . . . . . Is very strong and possibly the surest tackler on the team . . . . . Came to Pitt as a running back from Lower Merion High and Bordentown Military Institution where he won numerous honors and six letters in football, baseball and track . . . . . economics.

BRUCE HARKIEWICZ* (68) Def. Tackle Jr., 6-2, 227 Pittsburgh, Pa.

A starting defensive tackle last season, Bruce had a good year for a sophomore and the added experience and maturity should help him considerably this year . . . . . A weightlifter, he has excellent strength and good quickness . . . . . Biggest problem last year was lack of experience . . . . . Can press over 1,000 pounds . . . . . At Avalon High he won eight letters in football, basketball and track. He won numerous honors, including athlete-of-the-year by the Pittsburgh Curbstone Coaches . . . . . An excellent student . . . . . chemical engineering.

Dave Havern

Lou Julian



Bob Kuziel

DAVE HAVERN* (17) Quarterback Jr., 5-9, 167 McKees Rocks, Pa.

The mini-sized starting quarterback who broke three school passing records last season and ranked 15th in passing in the NCAA . . . . . Set school records in passes completed in one game (29), passes thrown in one game (51) and passes thrown in one season (287) . . . . . Overall completed 140-287 passes for 1,810 yards and seven TDs . . . . . Is an exciting player who loves to scamper from the pocket and throw on the dead run . . . . . Took a fearful pounding in several games last year, but always bounced up quickly . . . . . Has the heart of a lion . . . . . Is possessed of a strong throwing arm, and despite his size, can throw the ball with accuracy 50 yards in the air . . . . . In high school he was so concerned about his lack of size that he wore 'bulky' sweaters when college coaches were recruiting him . . . . . Won All-State honors at Montour High where he earned six letters in football and baseball . . . . . His hobby is cars . . . . . Wore white shoes last year but when things didn't go well for the Panthers, he changed them in favor of black shoes to try and change the luck . . . . . pre-dentistry.

CHUCK HUTCHKO* (54) Center Sr., 6-1, 200 New Eagle, Pa.

Started at center as a sophomore, but injuries kept him from lettering last season . . . . . Injured his back this spring, and didn't participate in the drills . . . . . Is very quick and mean, but lack of size has hurt him . . . . An All-State choice at Monongahela he won five letters in football and soccer . . . . . mechanical engineering.

LOU JULIAN (42) Fullback So., 5-11, 222 Steubenville, Ohio

Had an excellent spring and could win the starting fullback job this fall . . . . . Is a bruising type of runner, a throw-back to the Pitt fullbacks of old . . . . . Doesn't have outstanding speed, but has the tough temperment needed at the fullback spot . . . . . Could also play linebacker . . . . . At Steubenville Central he won four letters in football and track in addition to numerous honors . . . . . pre-dentistry.

BOB KUZIEL (52) Center So., 6-4, 227 West Haven, Conn.

Considered one of the finest prospects on Pitt's freshman team last year . . . . . Big and strong, he is an extremely effective blocker, and should develop into one of Pitt's top offensive linemen . . . . . At Manlius High he won five letters and numerous honors in football and baseball . . . . . social science.

J. D. Lewis

Dan Lynn

Dave Magyar

J. D. LEWIS* (30) Wingback Jr., 6-2, 190 Raleigh, N.C.

The backup wingback last season, J. D. moved to the first-team this spring when regular Joe McCain skipped the drills to participate in baseball. With McCain's status doubtful because of a leg injury, J. D. will be counted on to carry the brunt of the load . . . . . A natural athlete, he has the moves and speed (9.9 in the hundred) to be an excellent receiver . . . . . Third in the country in kickoff returns last year with 650 yards in 31 kicks . . . . . Also caught eight passes for 104 yards . . . . . Came to Pitt on a tennis scholarship after winning State Negro title three years and once the Interscholastic National ATA crown . . . . . Won eleven letters at John W. Ligon High in football, tennis and basketball . . . . . liberal arts.

RICK LOZIER (71) Off. Tackle So., 6-1, 227 Jackson, Mich.

A fine prospect, Rick has the size and toughness to be a good offensive lineman . . . . . Did not have a good spring but if he lives up to his potential he could help Pitt's offensive line problems by cracking the starting lineup . . . . . At St. Mary's High he won All-State honors while earning five letters in football, basketball and track . . . . . education.

DAN LYNN (61) Off. Guard So., 6-1, 211 Lima, Ohio

Another pleasant surprise during spring drills, Dan could crack the starting lineup before the season is too old . . . . . Showed good quickness and blocking ability this spring . . . . . At Lima Bath High where he won State and District honors, he earned six letters in football, track and baseball . . . . . social science.

DAVE MAGYAR (56) Center Sr., 6-1, 216 McKeesport, Pa.

The regular center last season, Dave will have to turn back a strong challenge from sophomore Bob Kuziel this year . . . . . He has the experience, however, and showed good improvement this spring . . . . . At South Allegheny High he won three letters in football . . . . . liberal arts

Dave Mancuso

Dave McGrath

George Medich

DAVE MANCUSO (55) Center Sr., 6-3, 212 Monongahela, Pa.

A two-year starter at offensive tackle, Dave was switched to center this past spring . . . . . He may be moved back to offensive guard or tackle, but is listed at center going into fall drills . . . . . Is considered one of Pitt's best blocking linemen . . . . . At Monongahela High he was a Scholastic Magazine All-American while winning five letters in football and soccer . . . . . Named MVP of the Mon Valley conference . . . . . A top student with better than 3.0 average . . . . . electrical engineering.

JOE McCAIN (13) Wingback Sr., 6-0, 190 Vandergrift, Pa.

A leg injury suffered playing softball this summer, leaves Joe's status in doubt as this book went to press . . . . . A two-year starter and one of Pitt's finest receivers, Joe broke his leg while sliding home in a friendly game of softball this summer, and the cast won't come off until late August . . . . . A fierce competitor, Joe has excellent moves and hands, plus two years of experience . . . . . Has caught 59 passes in two years for 791 yards and 2 TDs . . . . . Skipped spring drills to participate in baseball where he was the team's third leading hitter (.340) and the leading rbi man with 13. Named to the District All-Star team . . . . . At Kiski High where he was a quarterback he won nine letters in football, baseball and basketball . . . . . pre-dentistry.

DAVE McGRATH (41) Linebacker Jr., 6-2, 227 Altoona, Pa.

A little used linebacker last season, Dave blossomed into a real find this spring and nailed down a starting job . . . . . Is big and tough, but needs experience . . . . . At Altoona High where he won All-State honors he won six letters in football and basketball . . . . . liberal arts.

GEORGE MEDICH (85) Tight End Sr., 6-5, 225 Aliquippa, Pa.

A two-year starter, George was Pitt's third leading receiver last season with 29 catches for 330 yards and two TDs . . . . . May have the best hands on the team, but does not have great speed . . . . . Was the leading pitcher on the baseball team this spring with a 4-2 record and a low ERA of 1.64 . . . . . Came to Pitt as a quarterback at Hopewell High where he won nine letters in football, basketball and baseball . . . . . english literature.

John Moss

Paul Naponick

Bill Pilconis

JOHN MOSS (24) Tailback So., 6-4, 220 Vestal, N.Y.

The leading groundgainer on last year's freshman team, and one of its top prospects . . . . . Had a good spring, and was running behind regular Dennis Ferris at the end of the drills . . . . . Has the size and speed that the coaches are looking for at the tailback spot . . . . . Can also play defensive end . . . . . At Vestal High where he won Central New York Lineman-of-the-Year honors in addition to Coaches Scholastic Magazine All-American, he earned six letters in football and track . . . . civil engineering.

STEVE MOYER (80) Split End So., 6-0, 188 Pennsburg, Pa.

Despite his lack of height, Steve is considered an excellent prospect . . . . . Has outstanding hands, and made several spectacular catches in the spring game . . . . . Was the leading receiver on the freshman team . . . . . At Upper Perkiomen where he was a running back, he won numerous 'all' honors while earning nine letters in football, baseball, basketball and track . . . . . social science.

PAUL NAPONICK (88) Def. End Sr., 6-4, 246 Irwin, Pa.

Had an excellent spring practice, and looked particularly well suited to Pitt's new defensive setup for its ends . . . . . Was a regular as a sophomore, but an off-and-on starter last season . . . . . Had several good games but still has yet to reach his full potential . . . . . Is big and strong but needs work on his quickness . . . . . At Norwin High he won All-State honors in addition to numerous others in both football and basketball . . . . . Lettered at Pitt during his sophomore season on the basketball team . . . . . psychology.

BILL PILCONIS* (89) Split End Jr., 6-6, 207 Lansford, Pa.

An outstanding receiver who was forced to move to defensive end last year when injuries weakened Pitt there last year . . . . . At 6-6, he has the size, and also the moves to make a top split end . . . . . Because he can also block well, he may be used alternately at the tight end spot . . . . . As a freshman led the Panther Cubs in receiving . . . . . Started against UCLA on offense last year and caught two passes for 20 yards . . . . . At Panther Valley High he won nearly all honors there were to win, including Scholastic Magazine All-American, while earning eleven letters in football, basketball and track . . . . . In basketball he was All-State and in track he was the State Class B high hurdles champion . . . . . His father, Joseph, is a high school coach . . . . . biology

George Pribish

Ed Sadowski

Bryant Salter

TOM PORRECA* (60) Def. Tackle Jr., 6-3, 230 Fallsington, Pa.

A sometimes starter last year, Tom has been hampered by knee injuries which have slowed his progress at Pitt . . . . . When healthy, he's capable of breaking into the starting lineup once he gains the needed experience . . . . . At Bishop Egan High he won six letters in basketball, football and track . . . . . liberal arts.

GEORGE PRIBISH (32) Def. Back Sr., 5-11, 184 Central City, Pa.

A regular last season, George is expected to start again this season although he'll have to fight off several stiff challenges from newcomers . . . . . As a sophomore he started several games as a tailback, but midway through the season he was switched to the defensive backfield to help out in several weak areas . . . . . Has good speed, and can cut sharply . . . . . Is a smart football player and a good tackler . . . . . At Shade High where he won All-State honors he earned twelve letters in football, basketball, baseball and track . . . . . electrical engineering.

GEORGE RICHARDS (72) Off. Tackle Sr., 6-1, 227 Cleveland, Ohio

A converted fullback, George ended the season as Pitt's regular offensive tackle last year . . . . . Has good speed for a lineman, and the year of experience should help him considerably . . . . . At University School he won eight letters in football, wrestling and baseball . . . . . economics.

ED SADOWSKI (64) Off. Guard Sr., 6-0, 224 Natrona, Pa.

A good bet to start at offensive guard spot, despite the challenges of several younger players . . . . . A steady, hard-nosed player who showed good progress this spring, Ed also has the quickness to pull well for the outside power sweeps . . . . . At Har-Brack High he won four letters in football and baseball . . . . . economics.

BRYANT SALTER* (20) Def. Back Jr., 6-4, 193 Pittsburgh, Pa.

A fine track and football athlete, Bryant should benefit greatly from the year of experience he received as a sometimes starter last year . . . . . Had several good games, but inexperience cost him in several others . . . . . Has excellent speed and quickness, and should be a good defensive back before he's through . . . . . At Pitt on a track scholarship, and already holder of two all-time Pitt records . . . . . As a freshman he high jumped 6-10 for one mark, and this past year triple jumped 49-11 for the other . . . . . Hopes to be an interpreter . . . . . At South Hills High he won five letters in football and track . . . . . liberal arts.

Ken Shumaker

John Simpson

Joe Spicko

PHIL SGRIGNOLI* (46) Fullback Jr., 5-11, 214 Harrisburg, Pa.

Although used sparingly last year, Phil showed signs of being a good runner by picking up 50 yards in 14 carries . . . . . A real try guy, he's a hard runner who uses his strength instead of speed . . . . . One of his hobbies is weight lifting, so naturally, he's extremely strong . . . . . At Bishop McDevitt High he won two letters in football and was accorded several honors . . . . . Prepped one year at Bordentown Academy . . . . . liberal arts.

Year	Att.	Yds.	Net Yds.	Avg.	TDs
1968	14	51	50	3.5	0

KEN SHUMAKER (48) Linebacker Jr., 6-0, 203 Beaver Falls, Pa.

Although he just missed lettering last year, Ken is expected to see considerable action this fall . . . . . showed steady progress this spring, and surprised the coaches with his play despite his lack of real size . . . . . At Beaver Falls High he won All-State honors while earning two letters in football . . . . . Member of Pa. Big 33 team . . . . . sociology.

JOHN SIMPSON (65) Off. Guard So., 6-1, 230 Zanesville, Ohio

Could be Pitt's top offensive lineman despite his lack of experience . . . . . Coaches say he has all the tools to be an outstanding offensive lineman . . . . . Is extremely quick, and has good size . . . . . At Zanesville High he won All-State honors and honorable mention AllAmerican . . . . . Earned eight letters in football, track and basketball . . . . . Won the State shot put championship by throwing it over 60 feet . . . . . Excellent student . . . . . pre-law

ED SINESKY (40) Linebacker Jr., 6-2, 211 Bethel Park, Pa.

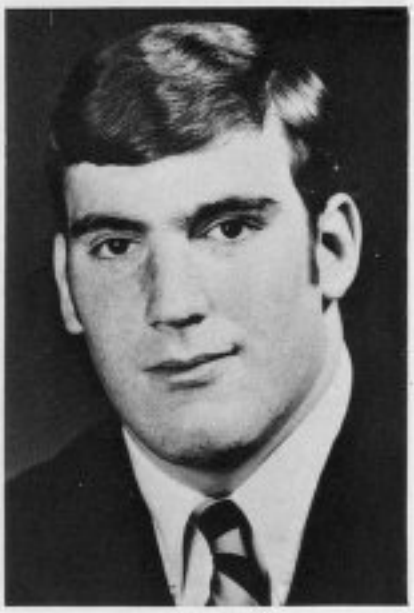
Had a good spring, and could see plenty of action this fall, after just missing his letter last year . . . . . Needs experience, and should get that this year . . . . . At Bethel Park High where he won conference honors, he earned three letters in football and track . . . . . chemical engineering.

JOE SPICKO* (39) Kicker Jr., 5-11, 210 Greenville, Pa.

Should be one of the nation's leading punters this year, after ranking 22nd in the country last year as a sophomore . . . . . Got off numerous kicks of well over 50 yards last year and ended the season with a 40.5 average . . . . . Punts the ball very high . . . . Came to Pitt basically as a field goal kicker . . . . . Still holds the Pa. scholastic record when he booted a 52-yarder at Reynolds High . . . . Won five letters in football and wrestling in high school . . . . . Won the district and sectional wrestling championships in high school . . . . . liberal arts.

John Stevens

Lloyd Weston



Jim Wildonger

JOHN STEVENS* (75) Def. Tackle Jr., 6-2, 242 Sharon, Pa.

Pitt's top defensive lineman last season, John could be one of the East's top tackles this fall . . . . . Is a tough, mean player, a throw-back to the Pitt tackles of old . . . . . Also has good speed as shown by the fact that he played offensive end in high school . . . . . At Sharon High he was named Scholastic Magazine All-American and All-State in addition to numerous other honors . . . . . Won four letters in football and basketball . . . . . liberal arts.

FRED TOLHURST (84) Def. End Sr., 6-5, 226 Fremont, Ohio

Injuries have slowed his progress at Pitt, but following a good spring the coaches are counting on him to be of considerable help this fall . . . . . Has good size, and uses his long arms to good advantage . . . . .Was an offensive end as a freshman . . . . . At Ross High he won six letters in football, basketball and track while earning numerous conference and State honors . . . . . A top student . . . . . electrical engineering.

LLOYD WESTON* (66) Def. End Jr., 6-1, 234 Pittsburgh, Pa.

Hailed as one of the finest schoolboy linemen ever to come out of the city of Pittsburgh, Lloyd had a tough time living up to his advance billing because of injuries sustained to both knees . . . . . Used as a linebacker last year and a middle guard, but switched to defensive end this spring . . . . . Has all the tools to be a great one . . . . . Could also play offensively . . . . . Possibly the most sought-after high school player in the nation his senior year . . . . . One Big Ten coach called him "the finest high school lineman we've seen in the last 15 years . . . . . At Westinghouse High he won every honor there was to win including first-team Scholastic Magazine All-American . . . . . Married, he and his wife, Candy, have two children . . . . . liberal arts.

JIM WILDONGER (79) Def. End So., 6-2, 220 Allentown, Pa.

Although used at defensive end this spring Jim will probably be tried at offensive tackle this fall because of Pitt's strength at end . . . . . Showed good strength this spring, and is willing to hit and hit hard . . . . . Coaches feel he could develop into a fine offensive lineman . . . . . At William Allen High he won four letters in football and basketball . . . . . humanities.

Jack Wiley

John Wozniak

Eugene Yajko

JACK WILEY (82) Tight End Jr., 6-0, 226 Pittsburgh, Pa.

Just missed lettering last year as a defensive end, but should see considerably more action this season as an offensive performer . . . . . Son of former Pitt coach and Pittsburgh Steeler player, Jack, Sr. . . . . Has good hands, but needs to gain experience and speed . . . . . At Baldwin High he won eight letters in football, track and swimming . . . . . history.

JOHN WOZNIAK* (44) Linebacker Jr., 5-10, 216 Pittsburgh, Pa.

Another fine linebacking performer who, if he doesn't start, will see considerable action . . . . . Is a tough, hard-nosed performer, and a hard tackler despite his lack of height . . . . . Played most of last year with a painful cyst which eventually forced him to miss the last couple weeks of spring practice this year . . . . . At Baldwin High he won two letters in football, in addition to being named to the All-WPIAL and Pa. Big 33 teams . . . . . liberal arts.

EUGENE YAJKO (53) Linebacker Sr., 5-10, 205 Leechburg, Pa.

A steady, solid performer, Eugene also has been hampered by a series of injuries that have kept him from the starting lineup . . . . . Is a sure tackler, but lack of speed has hurt . . . . . Despite the injuries, he lettered as a sophomore and a junior . . . . . At Leechburg Union High he was named All-WPIAL while winning three letters in football . . . . . psychology.

Game Notes: This will be the 11th meeting between these two cross country rivals . . . UCLA has won the last four games, the last three of them by lopsided scores . . . Pitt opened last season at UCLA with high hopes but saw everything dashed to pieces in a 63-7 loss . . . In that game, end Mike Garratt caught two touchdown passes and so did Ron Copeland. Both return this year . . . Pitt linebacker Ralph Cindrich was credited with 17 tackles, high for both teams. Cindrich injured his ankle in the game, though, and was out for the season . . . UCLA's 3-7 record last year was Tom Prothro's first losing season at the California school . . . UCLA visits Pitt Stadium next season.

Game Notes: Former Navy assistant, Richard 'Rick' Forzano, was appointed the Naval Academy's 30th head football coach this past January. He came to the Academy from the Cincinnati Bengals where he had served as offensive backfield coach . . . Two former Pitt assistants are members of Forzano's staff—Leeman Bennett and Dan Sekanovich . . . Forzano said he "wanted to breed a nest of hornets who will seek out and string opposing ball carriers." . . . In last year's game, Pitt took a 16-3 lead into the final quarter but the Midshipmen won it with a safety, field goal and touchdown. The Panthers rallied to march to the Navy two-yard line but then missed a field goal attempt with seven seconds remaining. Panther tailback Tony Esposito, who returns this season, rushed for 112 yards . . . Navy's 17-16 win gave the Midshipmen an 8-7-2 lead in the series which dates back to 1912.

Game Notes: This is the first meeting between these two schools but they're scheduled to meet four times in the next five years . . . Tulane coach Jim Pittman is in the fourth year of a huge rebuilding program. He came to the Green Wave after serving as the top assistant for ten years to Darrell Royal of Texas . . . One of Tulane's biggest problems has been the lack of depth, but Pittman appears to have that solved this year. At the season's end last year, the Green Wave had only 59 able bodies on the squad, but the '69 pre-season roster shows 94 players . . . A total of 11 of these players have come from the ranks of the junior colleges . . . The top two Tulane players are both juniors and both linebackers—Ray Hester and Rick Kingrea.

Game Notes: Despite losses the past two years, Pitt holds a commanding 42-18-1 lead in this old rivalry which dates back to 1895 . . . Mountaineer coach Jim Carlen welcomes 27 lettermen this year from a squad that went 7-3 last year. Heading the list is quarterback Mike Sherwood who helped break nine school pass records last year. Against Pitt he completed 27-37 tosses for 416 yards and two TDs. He also ran for two more tallies . . . Pitt quarterback Dave Havern completed 16-29 passes for 264 yards and 1 TD . . . W.Va. pass defense ranked eighth in the nation last year and everyone is back this season.

Game Notes: The Irish hold a commanding 23-11-1 lead in this series which began in 1909 . . . They have won seven of the last eight, including last year's 56-7 romp . . . Notre Dame gained a total of 378 yards on the ground in last year's game but didn't have an individual with more than 66 yards . . . Joe Thiesman, who returns this season, started against the Panthers last year and completed 7-10 passes for 153 yards and two TDs. . . . Pitt has met only Penn State and West Virginia more times than they've played the Irish. And, the two schools are scheduled to meet for a number of more years.

Seventy-Nine Years of Panthers

Pitt football began when the University was known as the Western University of Pennsylvania in 1890, but the Panthers did not begin their march into the front line powers for another decade.

In 1904 the Western University of Pennsylvania eleven, had its first winning streak. Sparking this team was Joe Thompson, World War I fame.

He took over as coach after his graduation, and in 1910 turned out an undefeated, untied, and unscored on eleven.

In 1914 under Joe Duff, brother of the former U.S. Senator, the Panthers prepared for the event of Pop Warner, by losing only one game.

Not until mid-1919 did the Blue and Gold bow in intercollegiate competition. Thirty-two consecutive victories were recorded.

The 1916 Pitt team turned up with an innovation, for which millions of football fans have since given thanks. In addition to being undefeated, the Panthers, under Warner, were the first to wear numbers.

During this period the first All-American appeared. Bob Peck in 1915 and 1916, and rated as one of the great All-Time All-Americans at center, Tom Davies, at halfback and Leonard Hilty at tackle in 1918 were some of the stars of the era.

Famous then, and more famous later, players were a big Scotch guard by the name of Jock Sutherland; the 1917 captain and end, now Dr. H. C. Carlson, for 31 years head coach of basketball at his alma mater; and Tiny Thornhill, who went on to coach Stanford's Rose Bowl teams.

Perfect seasons were out after 1919, but they still were winning years. Herb Stein, a center, joined the list of All-Americas, and Harvey Harmon played a lot of tackle.

In 1924, Jock Sutherland began a 15 year regime, which started slowly but ended with the Panthers ensconced among the mighty.

Only 20 games were lost during this period, and another 11 were tied. Eastern titles came in 1925, 1927, 1929, 1931, 1932, 1934 and 1937. Four times the Panthers showed in the Rose Bowl, winning the final game in 1937 against Washington.

All-Americas during the period were Ralph Chase in 1925 at tackle, Gibby Welch at halfback in 1927, Mike Getto at tackle in 1928, Ray Montgomery at guard and Joe Donchess at end in 1929, Jess Quatse at tackle in 1931, Warren Heller at halfback in 1932, Joe Skladany at end in 1933, Doc Hartwig at guard and George Shotwell at center in 1934, Averell Daniell at tackle in 1936, Marshall Goldberg at halfback and Tony Matisi at tackle in 1937, and Goldberg and Bill Daddio at end in 1938.

On the All-America rolls since Sutherland were Ralph Fife in 1941, Bernie Barkouskie, in 1949, and Joe Schmidt, in 1952, all guards; Eldred Kraemer, a tackle in 1952, Joe Walton, a unanimous choice at end in 1956, guard John Guzik in 1958 and end Mike Ditka in 1960.

Sutherland left in 1938 and the Pitt power fell off for the next ten years. Charley Bowser was succeeded by Clark Shaughnessy who held sway during World War II. Wes Fesler brightened the picture in 1946, and was followed by Mike Milligan who turned in the first winning teams of a decade in both 1948 and 1949.

When Milligan resigned in 1950,

Len Casanova came in to take over for that year, but left the following summer. In 1951 Athletic Director Tom Hamilton took over as head coach, and then in January of 1952 Lowell Dawson was named.

Dawson won six including Notre Dame, Army, Ohio, Indiana and Iowa among the victims, and lost three.

In 1954 ill health caused him to give up football coaching in mid-season, and Tom Hamilton took over as head coach and put the team on a winning basis.

After the season he stepped down to turn the team over to Johnny Michelosen.

A 7-3 record, featuring decisive upset wins over Duke at Durham and over West Virginia before a capacity crowd in Pittsburgh, brought a Sugar Bowl invitation, and a close defeat by Georgia Tech at New Orleans that didn't hurt the Panther's national ranking.

The Panthers went to the Gator Bowl in 1956, after a 7-2-1 season, and again lost to Georgia Tech 21-14.

In 1957, Pitt was 4-6, in 1958, 5-4-1, in 1959 finished with a 6-4 record and had a 4-3-3 record in 1960.

In 1961, Pitt was 3-7, the most disastrous record since 1951. In 1962, the record was 5-5.

In 1963, Pitt finished with a 9-1 mark and was ranked third in the country.

After losing seasons in 1964, 3-5-2, and 1965, 3-7, Michelosen was succeeded by Dave Hart.

Faced by a monstrous schedule and lacking player talent, Hart's first two teams completed a 2-18 mark.

Pitt Hall of Fame Awardees

Thus far the University of Pittsburgh has had four players and one coach elected to the National Hall of Fame. Jock Sutherland, a great guard from 1914 through 1917, and Pitt's brilliantly successful coach from 1924 through 1938, was elected in 1953 being among the first coaches named.

In 1954 Bob Peck, Pitt's first All-America (center in 1915 and 1916), was elected as the first Pitt player to have his name placed on the honor roll.

In 1958, Marshall Goldberg, an All-America halfback in 1937 and an All-America fullback in 1938, was elected.

In 1965, George McLaren, an All-America fullback in 1917 and 1918, was elected.

In 1967, Herb Stein, an All-America center in 1921, was elected.

Jock Sutherland

Dr. John Bain (Jock) Sutherland was a great player and coach at Pitt.

Entering Pitt within a few years after he left his native Scotland he was a regular guard on the great Pitt teams of 1914-1917, teams that lost but one game during the entire period.

Upon graduation, with a dental degree in 1918, he went into the service, coached the Camp Greenleaf Team with the AEF, then came back to the coaching job at Lafayette. Four years later, in 1924, he replaced Pop Warner at Pitt, and after getting the foundation laid, put the Panthers back into the first line again.

There were national titles in 1927, 1929, and 1937; eastern honors in 1925, 1927, 1929, 1931, 1932, 1934, 1936, and 1937. Rose Bowl appearances in 1928, 1930 and 1933, climaxed with a win in 1937. All-Americas were turned out with regularity during this period.

Leaving Pitt in 1939, he coached Brooklyn in 1940 and 1941, then went into the Navy. Upon his return he took over the Pittsburgh Steelers, giving them their greatest days, until his very sudden death in the spring of 1948.

Bob Peck

Bob Peck was Pitt's initial first team All-America, being selected by Walter Camp in 1915 and 1916. In both of these years Pitt was undefeated, and in his sophomore year, 1914, the Panthers lost only one game.

He was captain of the 1916 Pitt team that is rated among the greatest of all time, both at Pitt and in the nation. Playing under Pop Warner, Pitt's coach during his last two years, he was a terrific roving center of the old variety, and an accurate passing center who could lead the speedy Pitt backs on the famous single and double wing attack which Warner was then perfecting.

After his graduation he moved to Culver Military Academy where he was athletic director and head coach until his sudden death in 1934.

Marshall Goldberg

Marshall Goldberg came to Pitt from Elkins, West Virginia, and for the three years of his varsity career was the most highly publicized and popular back in Pitt history. These three years, coincidental with Jock Sutherland's last three as Pitt's head coach, saw the Panthers win a national title, a Rose Bowl game, and two eastern championships.

In two years as the regular left halfback Goldberg was the leading scorer and leading ground gainer, and then, moving to fullback with the famous Dream Backfield of 1938, he became a terrific blocker and power back, despite his relative lack of weight (185). He was a defensive expert during his three years and starred at this phase when he went into pro ball.

On campus he was a member of Phi Epsilon Pi, national social fraternity, and ODK, national honorary leadership society.

Upon graduation he played pro ball and was in the insurance business in Chicago, served nearly four years as a line officer in the Navy, and then finished his pro career with the Chicago Cardinals when they won their first title. He is vice president of the Emmerman Machinery Company in Chicago.

George McLaren

George McLaren, who came to Pitt from Peabody High School, is considered the greatest fullback in the school's history.

He played four years, 1915-1918, and during this period, the Panthers compiled a 29-0 record. McLaren was captain of the 1918 team. McLaren scored 13 touchdowns in 1917, a school record, and also holds the one-season rushing mark by a Pitt fullback with 782 yards. He also holds the longest run from scrimmage, 92 yards in 1917. He was never stopped without making a gain during his intercollegiate career.

McLaren also was a member of the basketball team for two years and a performer on the track squad for two campaigns.

McLaren now resides in Baltimore, Maryland, and is retired.

Herb Stein

Herb Stein came to Pitt from Warren, Ohio, and for four years was one of the greatest offensive and defensive centers in Panther history.

A member of the great "Pop" Warner teams in 1918-21, he was named as a first-team All-American in 1921. During his four years, Pitt won 21, lost five and tied four. His brother, Russ, was also an All-American tackle at Washington & Jefferson.

Now a highly successful business executive, Stein owns and operates nine corporations. He resides in Cleveland, Ohio.

These Panthers Rambled

Here are the top Pitt ground gainers and scorers since 1914. They traveled far in picking-up yards from scrimmage, passing, kick returns, and interceptions, and they put a lot of markers on the Pitt side of the scoreboard.

1969 Press Guide On Sale

Although this brochure is designed chiefly for sportswriters, radio, TV and other news personnel to assist them in covering the 1969 Pitt football season, fans may order copies (while they last) by mailing a check or money order of $1.00 to the Sports Information Director, University of Pittsburgh, P.O. Box 7436, Pittsburgh, Pa. 15213. Make checks payable to the University of Pittsburgh.

Memo to Press-Radio-TV

This brochure has been prepared for the gentlemen of the working press, radio and television who have so ably covered the Pitt athletic scene in the past years. We are appreciative of their interest and attention, and it is hoped this brochure will assist them in their coverage of the 1969 Pitt football team.

Contents of this booklet and changes in personnel and plans will be supplemented before and during the season by the Sports Information Office. If you desire additional information, services, or material, contact:

DEAN BILLICK

Sports Information Director

University of Pittsburgh

P.O. Box 7436

Pittsburgh, Pa. 15213

Office Telephone: 683-2800 (Code 412)
683-2805 (after 5 p.m.)

Home Telephone: 531-7701 (Code 412)

PRESS BOX: Due to lack of space, accommodations in the press box will be furnished only to representatives of Pittsburgh district papers, and from metropolitan papers filing for Sunday editions, press services, Pittsburgh radio and TV sports commentators, and scouts from schools playing either Pitt or its opponent. Requests should be made in advance, indicating whether or not Western Union services will be needed during or after the game. Those coming to the press box should have cabs take them to Gate #23, to avoid climbing hills. This is located behind Pennsylvania Hall of the School of Medicine.

PRESS COMPLIMENTARIES: The University extends the privileges of press complimentary tickets to all daily publications in the area. These will be limited to two each paper. Applications must be received by the Monday preceding the game and the seats will be located in the best available section at the time. The Athletic Department reserves the right to refuse any request for comps. It will be possible to purchase additional seats adjoining press complimentaries by enclosing a check or money order made out to the University of Pittsburgh, and note it on your request. The prices of these tickets are listed on page 64.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Sideline passes will be issued to Pittsburgh papers, news services, daily papers normally covering the opposing team, and student publications of the two schools. Photographers may not work in front of the bench and must stay behind the line and obey the instructions of the officer detailed to the area. Space in the photographers stand is reserved for newspapers in the same manner as field passes, and also for newsreel and game movie cameramen. This space must be requested in advance to insure adequate space. Field photographers should enter Gate #3. Photographers covering from the stand should use Gate #9.
